

Asset Ref No.	Moville: Church of St Pius X (NIAH & RPS 40902208)
Heritage Type	Built
	40902208	Church of St Pius X 1950 - 1955
Location	OS 6-inch map sheet	DG022
	Townland	Moville
	Parish	Moville Lower
	LCA	Inishowen Head to Quigley's Point
	ITM Coordinates	661258/938495
	NG Coordinates	261318/438512
Protection Status	NIAH & RPS
Condition	Substantial remains
Ownership (if known)	Civil Parish of Moville Lower
Site Description	Detached seven-bay single-storey Catholic church, built 1953, with choir gallery inside with large polygonal lantern over, chancel, sacristy to rear and nuns gallery overlooking altar. Copper sheeting with made stone copings to parapet walls, cast iron rainwater goods. Stipple render with made stone quoins to sides, coursed rubble granite and limestone to front and entrance porch. Coloured glass in leaded squares to made stone mullion lintel and quoined reveals, stained glass to clerestorey windows nearest chancel, timber sash windows to sacristy, timber cusped matchboard doors with toplights over, timber panelled double entrance d Shallow vault with plaster mouldings to centre of ceiling, timber panelling to lantern interior, timber panelled balustrade to gallery, polished granite altar table, lectern, tabernacle, font and chair with rubble granite low wall to altar sanctuary, timb M includes granite, slate mahogany, copper materials used in church.
Landscape Context (setting)	Located on Bath Terrace, north of R238 road on the eastern side of Moville town
Site Appraisal
Sensitivity	This site is not very sensitive to damage, although it is still in use.
Associations
Recommendations

Mapping

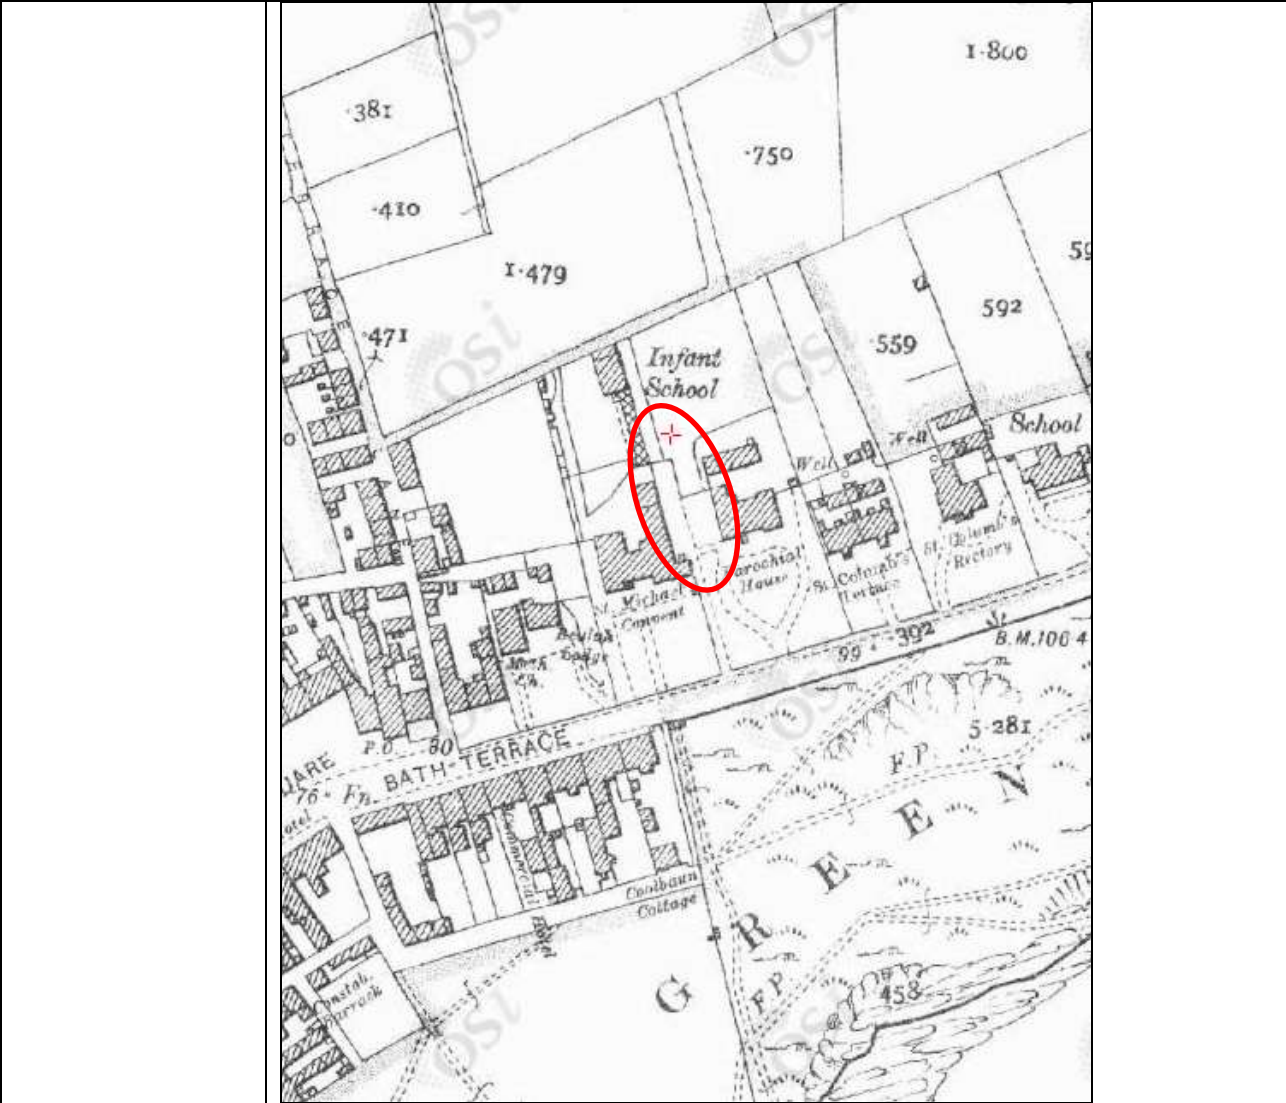

Location Map (www.archaeology.ie)

Location Map – close up (www.archaeology.ie)

1st edition OS map c. 1830 (www.osi.ie)

2nd edition OS map c. 1905 (www.osi.ie)

References	NIAH Survey 1996
Plates
Additional Notes	