Site Description	Internal diam. c. 31m. A subcircular area enclosed by an impressive earthen bank c. 1.5m high and an outer fosse on the W side. The S sector has been damaged by road building. Situated close to the shore of Lough Foyle in fairly good land and just S of a sheer drop to a river.
Landscape Context (setting)	Set within a wooded area surrounded by good agricultural land, to the northwest of the R238 road, 2km southwest of Moville and overlooking Lough Foyle.
Site Appraisal	Part of the monument was removed when the road (R238) was built, though the remaining part of the monument is substantial.
Sensitivity	This site is located close to the R238 road, but is not very sensitive to human interference.
