Description

Richmond Centre is a three to five-storey shopping centre, built 1983. It has pre-cast concrete panels, with vertical emphasis. Metal window units, recessed corner entrance, splayed external corners, flat roof. Three levels of retail at Richmond Street, and level access to Ferryquay Street. Photograph taken from Shipquay Street looking at Richmond Centre, Richmond Street. See also map reference F17 for 2-26 Ferryquay Street.

History

Circa 1973, Richmond Street properties had been substantially demolished. Erected on the site were single storey, flat-roofed shop units erected on sides of the street. These were demolished to make way for the Richmond Centre. The Street, Richmond Street, is part enclosed within the Richmond Centre. This re-development is bounded by Shipquay Street, Richmond Street, Linenhall Street, Ferryquay Street and Diamond. Designed by Keppie Henderson and Partners.
