

Asset Ref No.	Lifford, Church Hall (NIAH & RPS 40800802)
Heritage Type	Built
	Church Hall 1860 - 1870
Location	OS 6-inch map sheet	DG071
	Townland	Lifford
	Parish	Clonleigh
	LCA	River Deelee - Lifford
	ITM Coordinates	633450/898578
	NG Coordinates	233505/398586
Protection Status	NIAH &RPS
Condition	Extant and in good condition
Ownership (if known)	CoI, Clonleigh Parish
Site Description	Detached four-bay Gothic-Revival church hall with projecting gabled entrance porch, built 1863. Double-pitched, purple slates with ashlar gable copings, chimneys and skews and timber rafters to eaves. Rubble stone with ashlar datestone and chamfered plinth course at upper floor level and tooled sandstone quoins. Plain glass to decorative cast-iron windows with outward-opening casement lights to upper floor, timber sash windows to front of basement, timber matchboard door in lancet-arched opening, all with ashlar sandstone surrounds, trefoil heads to windows to so Scissors truss roof structure with central vertical cast-iron tie. Deacon's House to rear, stone steps up to entrance with rubble stone balustrade with ashlar coping, cast-iron gates, posts and railings to rubble stone frontage boundary wall. Welland & Gillespie Architects?
Landscape Context (setting)	Located at the eastern end of Lifford town, north of the Diamond and close to St. Lugadius CoI Church
Site Appraisal	The site contains substantial remains and is easily accessible.
Sensitivity
Associations	Associated with the Church of St. Lugadius.
Recommendations

Mapping

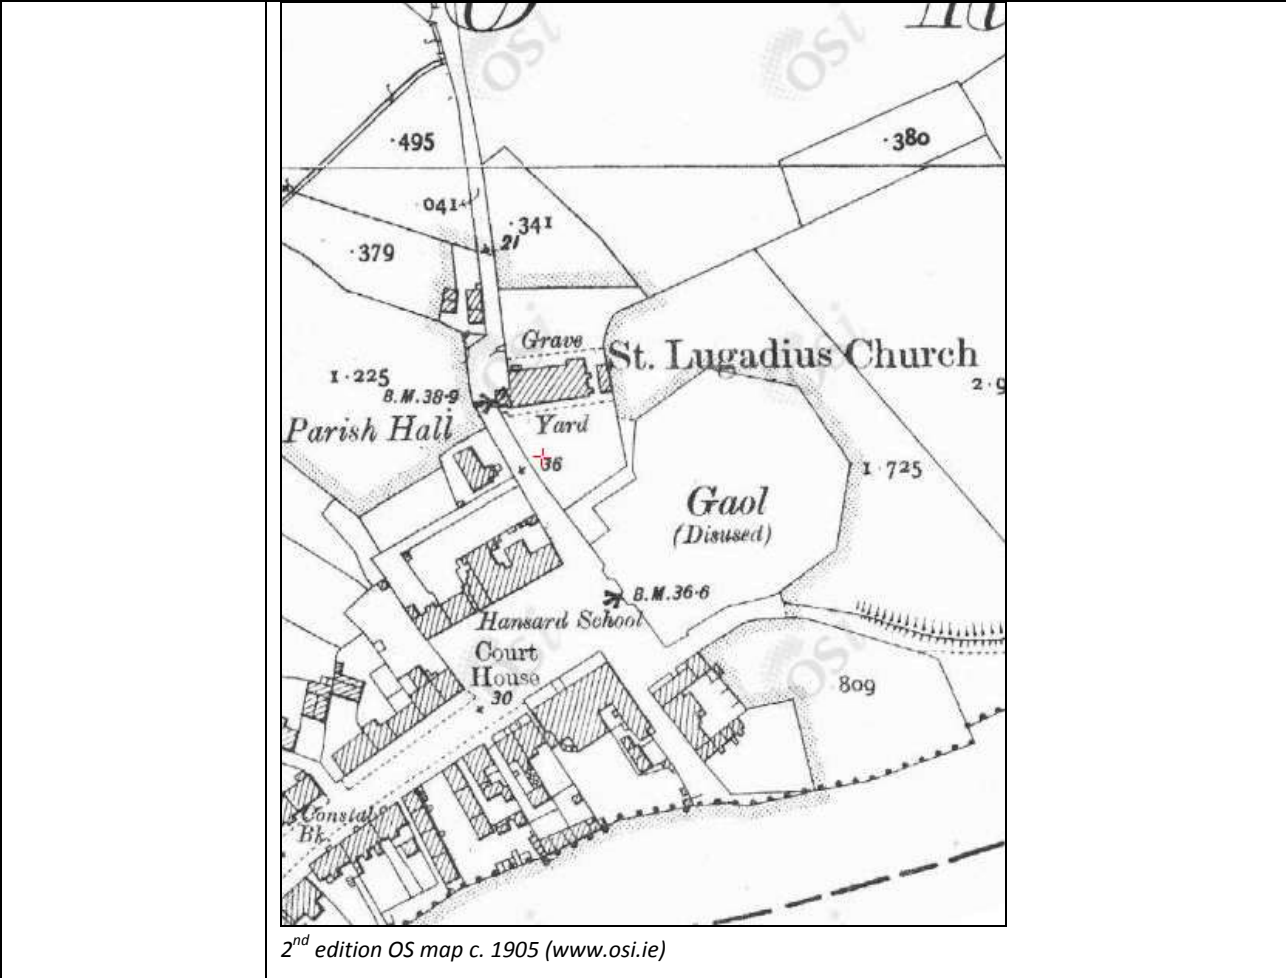

Location Map (www.archaeology.ie)

Location Map – close up (www.archaeology.ie)

1st edition OS map c. 1830 (www.osi.ie)

References	1996 NIAH Survey
Plates
Additional Notes	